SEALS 2008 Dive Schedule

Wednesday Evening Dives

June 25 - Camp 20 - This site was formerly a German POW camp. When it closed all the intact buildings were pushed into the bay.

- Max depth 30 feet.

July 2 - Eleanor Island Wall - Boat dive on a neat wall. Lots of large eggs and bird skeletons to find.

- Max depth 100 feet / 40 feet depending on side.

July 9 - Green River - Great dive for exploration, shallow water with slight current, and of course, green.

- Max depth 25 feet.

July 16 - Skeleton Lake Wall - Boat dive on a fantastic clear (but chilly) wall. Lots of fish and a couple of sunken barges.

- Max depth 90 feet.

July 23 - Lake Joseph Wall - Excellent boat dive in crystal clear water. Pick your depth and swim along the wall.

- Max depth 300+ feet.

July 30 - Clear Lake - Great shore dive for any level diver as well as a perfect dive to practice your navigational skills.

- Max depth 30 feet.

August 6 - Morrison Wreck - Shallow wreck dive off the docks in Barrie waterfront, in about 30 feet of water.

- Max depth 30 feet.

August 13 - Bracebridge Falls - Diving the falls is like diving at night, but this is a great dive to work on navigation. Slight current so finning techniques come into play.

- Max depth 30 feet.

August 20 - Wreck of the Waome - Boat dive on a wooden steamer sitting upright in 70 feet of water. Lights and experienced divers required.

- Max depth 70 feet.

August 27 - Eleanor Island Wall - Boat dive on a neat wall. Lots of large eggs and bird skeletons to find.

- Max depth 100 feet / 40 feet depending on side.

September 3 - Skeleton Lake Wall - Boat dive on a fantastic clear (but chilly) wall. Lots of fish and a couple of sunken barges.

- Max depth 90 feet.
